

For Schools

A press-play visual arts program for primary classrooms, built on The Arts | V9 Australian Curriculum and filmed across regional Queensland.

$1,000

per school, per year — unlimited users

What's included

- ✓ Creative units of work mapped to The Arts | V9 Australian Curriculum
- ✓ A renowned Queensland artist leading each unit, to teach, demonstrate and learn from
- ✓ Professional guidance and clear roles for teacher, artist and student
- ✓ Sequenced lesson plans, adjustable to run over a term or a semester
- ✓ Captivating videos with animation — watch, pause and review as needed
- ✓ A student workbook for every unit
- ✓ An assessment guide to support making judgements

Years 1–2

Years 3–4

Years 5–6

Curriculum & artist leads

Lee FullARTon
Curriculum writer

Queensland artist, teacher, author and illustrator who develops the units and classroom resources.

Lordy Dordie
Artist lead — Years 1 & 2

Brisbane fine artist and pattern designer working in colour-filled mixed media.

Paula Savage
Artist lead — Years 3 & 4

Torres Strait Islander artist (Moa Arts) working in weaving, lino print and jewellery.

Ron McBurnie
Artist lead — Years 5 & 6

Townsville printmaker and educator, works held in the National Gallery of Australia.

Each unit takes students through

1

Looking at and appraising the artist's work and their own

2

Experimenting with materials and ideas

3

Building technique and arts practice

4

Applying arts concepts and principles

5

Making a finished artwork

Flying Arts has connected artists, educators and communities across regional and remote Queensland for over 55 years, since founder Mervyn Moriarty OAM began teaching art classes in the bush in 1971. Supported by the Queensland Government through Arts Queensland.

Book now

07 3216 1322

flyingarts.org.au/for-schools

Queensland Government