

"Borderline Creative Development" - Regional Theatre Developed by Emerging Artists

Recipient: Amber Grossman
Funded Amount: $3,000
Location: Brinsmead, QLD, 4870

The Borderline Creative Development aims to facilitate paid employment and upskilling opportunities for Cairns emerging artists, through hands on experience in the development of a new Australian theatrical work.

Briscoe Sisters LIVE

Recipient: Deline Briscoe
Funded Amount: $3,000
Location: Peachester, QLD, 4519

First Nations Iconic family trio, Briscoe Sisters, will perform a 60 minute set at Peace Run Records. They will make a multi track recording of 5 songs in the set to mix and release before their Sydney Opera House Performance on 1st of May 2024.

SUPER - a short comedy film

Recipient: Jannah Dryden
Funded Amount: $3,000
Location: Manoora, QLD, 4870

SUPER is an inclusive short comedy film that follows two elderly ladies, Marg and Jerri, who when convinced they will receive better care in jail than in an aged care facility, hatch a plan to get arrested. Due to delays in the opening of the Cairns Screen Queensland studio, filming will take place at Bulmba-ja Theatre.

Debut Exhibition for Georgetown Artist

Recipient: Rebekah Haase
Funded Amount: $2,897
Location: Georgetown, QLD, 4871

Emerging rural artist, Rebekah Haase has her creative career at the forefront of her mind as she prepares for her first public display of artworks to be exhibited in April this year. The pop up gallery will feature as part of the Unearth Etheridge tourist attraction, housed in the TerrEstrial Information Centre.

Virtuoso! Rockhampton Symphony Orchestra with Andy Firth

Recipient: Rockhampton Symphony Orchestra Inc
Funded Amount: $2,180
Location: Gracemere, QLD, 4702

An exciting fusion of jazz and classical music, Virtuoso! will feature Mozart’s famous Clarinet Concerto and Artie Shaw’s contemporary Clarinet Concerto, renowned for its virtuoso cadenzas. The project will culminate with two intensive professional development workshops with soloist Andy Firth prior to a public concert.

An Australian regional designer at the core of the European fashion industry

Recipient: Simone Zarpelon Leao
Funded Amount: $3,000
Location: Cooran, QLD, 4569

Simone Z Leao will attend the Burgo Institute of Fashion in Milan, Italy, for a one-month professional development opportunity. Simone will upskill and foster her creative work in textile art and fashion design through an intensive hands-on learning with outstanding professionals of the industry.

Fantastic First Nations Fashion

Recipient: Stepping Black Indigenous Corporation Australia
Funded Amount: $4,870
Location: Bundaberg, QLD, 4670

In partnership with renowned Gooreng Gooreng fashion designer and acclaimed artist, Julie Appo, Stepping Black is offering an opportunity for four young First Nations people to learn how to sew, make quality garments and create an artistic fashion collection that can be showcased at the Regional Milbi Festival.

Gympie Region Studio Trails 2024

Recipient: Gympie Regional Council
Funded Amount: $3,000
Location: Gympie, QLD, 4570

The Studio Trails project creates uniquely accessible high-quality arts and cultural experiences in the Gympie region while providing opportunities for and strengthening the local arts and cultural sector.