

Regional Arts Fund Project Grants – Round 1 2022 Recipients

Applicant	Project Title	Project	Funding Amount	Project Location
Louise Birgan Bezel	Development of the TV series "Splendid" to market ready, promotional material	Louise Birgan Bezel will further the development of her award-winning script "Splendid" through extensive career development opportunities with internationally accredited and recognised mentors to develop a professional marketing portfolio.	$8,148.00	Cooran, 4569
Red Ridge Interior Queensland	Red Ridge the Label - Canvas to Catwalk Channel Country Ladies Day	Red Ridge Interior QLD will connect two rural and remote QLD communities to deliver a series of skills development workshops culminating in public presentations of creative work at two high-profile and nationally recognised fashion events.	$16,850.00	Windorah, 4481
Rachel Terry	The Doll in the Museum	Rachel Terry will work with the Cairns Museum to present an immersive piece of theatre that combines multimodal art forms and contemporary verbatim stories to create a positive experience about impermanence in the age of pandemics.	$30,000.00	Cairns, 4879
Crossroad Arts	Breathe In	Crossroad Arts will rehearse and premiere a new multimedia contemporary disability-led performance at the Mackay Festival of Arts.	$30,000.00	Mackay, 4740
Marilyn Marsh-Booth	Cloud Song Creative Development	Marilyn Marsh-Booth will lead a creative development of a new theatrical work "Cloud Song" with a team of Cairns-based regional creative artists culminating in a public showcase in 2023.	$19,014.00	Cairns City, 4870
Jessie Lloyd	Brixton Music Map	Jessie Lloyd will conduct a music-performance based research project which explores and analyses the misrepresentation of the histories of First Nations Australians and Black Britons.	$30,000.00	Enfield, England, EN2 8
Paul Perry	Jack'ie: Sand Goanna Dreaming	Paul Perry will conduct a series of community mosaic workshops to research and develop a 3-dimensional mosaic sculpture that will be installed and displayed at the Kalkie-based Community Lifestyle Support organisation.	$9,000.00	Kalkie, 4670

Bianca Gannon	No Place Like Home // Níl Aon Tinteán Mar Do Thinteán Féin [No Fireplace like your own Fireplace]	Bianca Gannon will compose a multi-instrument work exploring themes of home, displacement, and climate change in Australia & Ireland.	$10,730.00	Trinity Beach, 4879
Creative Country Association Inc	Art Gallery display boards	Creative Country Association will work collaboratively with the Murgon Men's Shed to design and create purpose-built display boards for the new Murgon Ancient Songbird Centre.	$4,082.00	Murgon, 4605
Bianca Acimovic	In Their Words: Regional and Remote Visual Arts Podcast	Bianca Acimovic will interview and profile a range of Queensland visual artists and arts workers across many rural and remote QLD communities to create a podcast series.	$12,410.00	Bundaberg South, 4670