

Regional Arts Fund Quick Response Grants – October Round 2021

| Applicant              | Project Location | Project Title                        | Project Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Funding amount |
|------------------------|------------------|--------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|
| Red Ridge Interior QLD | Milton, 4064     | Outback Art City Pop-up              | Outback Art City Pop-up will showcase and retail the work of five remote artists in a pop-up exhibition over a two-month period in Milton, Brisbane. Works and artist profiles will be made available via QR codes on the glass windows linking to the Red Ridge website. Four individual artists and one artists team member who are in the early stages of their careers will be invited to exhibit over the eight-week period providing a valuable opportunity for these emerging artists to exhibit their work in a metropolitan setting. The exhibition will remain on display until the end of February presenting a cultural product that will allow the audience to learn, discover and experience the wealth of Arts in the Outback region. | $5,000.00     |
| Margaret Burgess       | Bloomsbury, 4799 | Broadening Horizons with eCommerce.  | Broadening Horizons will support regional artist Margaret Burgess in establishing an ecommerce website. The establishment of this platform will allow Margaret to enter the worldwide market with her unique original paintings, limited and open addition prints, sculptures and handmade jewellery.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | $2,800.00     |
| Louise King            | Eudlo, 4554      | CATAPULT: Artist Mentoring Incubator | The project will allow regional artist Louise King to participate in THE HOLISTIC ARTIST: CATAPULT 6-MONTH ARTIST MENTORING PROGRAM delivered December 2021- June 2022. CATAPULT is a 6-month intensive ARTIST MENTORING ONLINE PROGRAM devised and delivered by Dr. Katy Abbott - mentor, lecturer, composer, and entrepreneur. The opportunity allows Louise to work with and learn from Dr Abbott, creative practitioners, and artists online as part of a 6-month incubator course designed for mid-career professionals who want to build momentum in their own curated artistic direction with 1:1 coaching, supportive hands-on, practical guidance in taking the next steps in their projects, industry and career.                          | $3,000.00     |