

2023-08 RAF Project Grant – QLD List of Recipients

Applicant Name	Project Title	Project Description	Funded Amount	Applicant Location
Cosmos Arts for Health Inc	The Art Gallery Gladstone Hospital	The curation and project management of two gallery spaces at the Gladstone Hospital will occur over a twelve-month period. The gallery spaces will provide employment for seven artists and produce a number of public art pieces. This project aims to continue improving the experience of patients, carers and staff in the Gladstone Hospital through visual art.	$20,420.00	Calliope, QLD, 4680
Mrs Olivia Everitt	Grant Writing for the Arts: Rural Roadshow	During March and April 2024, six fully subsidised, grant writing workshops will be made available to creative practitioners, artists and arts groups seeking funding for arts initiatives across 6 local government areas. The workshops will provide crucial professional development opportunities and build local creative capacity in smaller communities that often 'miss out' on workshop opportunities to larger regional centres.	$10,905.00	Imbil, QLD, 4570
Somerset Regional Council	Environment Biennial at The Condensery – an artist professional development and exhibition opportunity	Development and presentation of the first Environment Biennial at The Condensery in Toogoolawah showcasing local, Queensland and nationally significant contemporary artists whose work responds to the themes of environment and an evocation of place. The project will be accompanied by a substantial engagement and education program supporting creative development.	$29,450.00	Esk, QLD, 4312
Pippa Samaya	Dancing into wide spaces	This documentary dance film will follow the largest regional tour of a contemporary dance work in Australia. Featuring Townsville's only full-time company; Dancenorth with their acclaimed work 'Wayfinder' the film will be shot at over 23 locations connecting people and place and will take contemporary dance out of the elite theatre houses and big cities and into the wider community. The film will blend a documentary style 'behind the scenes' insight into life on the road as a dance athlete and touring company, with a series of fine art dance films set in rural locations celebrating the diverse richness found in the remote regions of this country.	$30,000.00	Mysterton, QLD, 4812
Nerise Howes	From Now On - Commission and Creative Development of a new musical theatre work	'From Now On' is a contemporary regional musical theatre work written by Kathryn Ash and Nerise Howes (Nereace) with musical collaboration with Nigel Pegrum. The work will undergo commission and creative development through multiple cultural consultations and a week-long creative development at Bulmba-ja Arts Centre in partnership with JUTE Theatre company. Drawing inspiration from traditional cultural	$12,163.00	Kewarra Beach, QLD, 4879 wisdom and modern philosophies, the work will seek to address contemporary issues such as mental health and climate change, and celebrate the very best of ourselves.

2023-08 RAF Project Grant – QLD List of Recipients

Centre for Australasian Theatre Inc.	The Great Travelling Médecin Show	The Great Traveling Médecin Show will undergo the final stage of development ready for touring by intercultural and interdisciplinary FNQ Company The Centre for Australasian Theatre (CfAT). The final stage of development included a Centre for Performing Arts Cairns (CPAC) Residency, rehearsals and the Cairns Premiere.	$30,000.00	Julatten, QLD, 4871
Kodie Redfern	Suitable Studio - Small Stage Under 21 Open Mic	Small Stage will be a monthly event in Townsville that will provide performance opportunities exclusively for emerging musicians under the age of 21. Presented by Suitable Studio and utilising the “open mic” format, Small Stage will provide school-age students and recent graduates with the opportunity to build confidence performing to a live audience, and network with local industry professionals, laying the groundwork for a professional music career. Partnerships with Grill'd and Neighbourhood Productions will ensure a family-friendly setting, promotion to students at local schools and the attendance of industry professionals.	$27,620.00	Gulliver, QLD, 4812
Musical Theatre Australia	"A Girl's Guide to World War" - Licensing Project	Written by Maleny couple Katy Forde and Aleathea Monsour, and produced by their company Musical Theatre Australia (MTA), the heartfelt and award-winning musical "A Girl's Guide to World War" has attracted motivated licensors in Queensland and beyond. To increase the licensing potential of the show, MTA will adapt the script for a larger cast and produce backing tracks radically expanding the show's future potential and providing a sustainable income for the regional theatre company.	$25,032.00	Maleny, QLD, 4552
Jill Chism	Remnants	‘Remnants’, a retrospective solo exhibition, held at NorthSite Contemporary Arts, Cairns in late August 2024, frames 30 years of art practice. Ecologically the exhibition will ask questions about consumption and waste, the demise of the natural environment and what we are left with, while asking existential questions about what we are doing and where we are headed. Materials for the exhibition consist almost entirely of waste materials from building projects and businesses. What visual and olfactory remnants from these? Where have they come from and what do they denote and what about waste?	$7,500.00	Oak Beach, QLD, 4877

2023-08 RAF Project Grant – QLD List of Recipients

Goombungee Public Hall Inc	Goombungee Creative Arts Community Workshop Program	The program will promote community wellness and identity building through professionally supervised creative arts workshops in three distinct disciplines of practice. Video-making through mobile technologies: in which participants will produce a locally situated mini-film and a series of mini-documentaries exploring intergenerational local experience. A slab-clay model making workshop series introduces all-age participants to researching, planning and constructing scale models of significant local buildings and landmarks. The visual arts workshops will provide meaningful engagement for all ages and capabilities to acrylic painting and printmaking techniques with a local and personal focus.	$23,260.00	Goombungee, QLD, 4354
Flinders Shire Council	Palette of Skies: Artistic Fusion	"Palette of Skies: Artistic Fusion at the Festival of Outback Skies" will offers students a distinctive chance to participate in a real-world artistic endeavour, cultivating skills, creativity, and teamwork. Working with both established artists and peers from diverse backgrounds, participants gain insights into varied creative techniques, cultural viewpoints, and problem-solving strategies, enriching their learning journey. They will actively contribute to a collaborative artwork that goes beyond individual efforts, fostering a sense of accomplishment.	$19,928.00	Hughenden, QLD, 4821